In Nice, France, on the 4th of July, a man from Genoese roots, whom was enriched by French culture, was born; Giuseppe Garibaldi. He would change the future of Italy and of the world forever.

Portugal, 1842

Rutte Old Tom Genever

Chamomile White Port

Bitters

It is in this year that we celebrate one of his most fascinating achievements; his wife, Anita. After spotting her through his telescope on his ship, already in love, he had no other plans than to make her his own. Like that, a woman with the courage and strength of a man and the beauty and delicacy of a woman, became his sweet other half.

Black Sea, 1824

Turkey

Black Tears Spiced Rum

Red Vermouth

Coffee Liqueur

Bitters

Oranges

Teenage rebellion often leads to the rejection of studies and to the dedication of friends and fun. For Garibaldi, all this was enclosed in his passion for Ancient Rome and his seafaring dreams. It's right in this year that his dreams become reality: the first trip to the Black Sea.

Salto, 1846

Uruguay

Monkey Shoulder Whiskey

Smoked Monkey Shoulder Whiskey

Honey

Lemon

Menabrea Beer

Having now become an expert leader, Giuseppe Garibaldi begins collecting great victories. One of which, in this year, is remembered as one of the most important; the battle of Salto, fought side by side with the Uruguayan navy for the independence of that very same country. A painting of glory crowned by goblets and weapons.

Rio Do Sol, 1836

Brazil

Organic Cachaça

English Breakfast Tea

Giuseppe Garibaldi now lives his life as a wanted man after his small, but numerous, Italian riots; including the boats he managed to illegally sneak onto thanks to his love for exploration. Eventually captured, he is exiled in Rio Grande Do Sol, where he starts to fight alongside the opposition for the liberty of the nation.

Rome, 1849

Italy

In this year, Garibaldi fights in Italy to ensure that the Roman Republic remains standing against the French and Austrian armies. Despite the great effort, the venture is not successful, thus, leading to surrender.

Following the defeat in Rome, our leader decides to retire in America at his friend's house; Antonio Meucci, taking a well-deserved long pause to reflect. In this period we discover two of the most excellent minds in Italian culture, reunited in the land of stars and stripes.

Sicily, 1860

Italy

Averna Liqueur

Reyka Vodka

Lemon & Lime

Balsamic Vinegar

Ginger Beer

Giuseppe Garibaldi led the most important event of the Italian Unification in this year; the Expedition of the Thousand, where people voluntarily came together to conquer the Kingdom of the Two Sicilies - with the dream of uniting the then divided country. The soldiers are remembered as the Garibaldini, fearless men characterised by their red clothes.

Italy

The Kingdom of the Two Sicilies had now returned home, with all the documents ready to be signed for it to finally be accomplished. With little else to consider, it is in this year that we can finally say "Welcome to the world Italy!".

London, 1864

England

Hendrick's Gin

Cherry Heering

Alipus Mezcal

Lemon

Roses

Bitters

Here, we find Garibaldi as a guest, amongst one of his last political responsibilities; welcomed to London with great acclaim by the Kingdom and the people themselves, a victorious man and unifier of nations. There is nothing to now halt the expansion of his fame, thus, making him the perfect guest for a typical English tea break.

Torino, 1871

Italy

Codigo Blanco Tequila

Red Vermoth

Lemon

Honey

Salt

Bitters

Garibaldi was also an animal rights supporter. Following his purchase of half the island of Caprera, he became increasingly vegetarian. Close contact with solitary nature made him believe animals and plants both have a soul that should not be harmed. In 1871, he formed the first company in Italy for the protection of animals; E.N.P.A.

Caprera, 1882

Italy

Black Tears

Bailey's

Grappa Bianca

Espresso

Relieved of all duties, Garibaldi decides to spend the last years of his life with nature, cultivating a bee farm at his house in Caprera and dedicating himself to his two other passions; grappa & coffee - and like that, after a long life of commitments and conquests, the world said their farewell to an all-Italian hero.
